GOD IS DANCING is an exhibition of collagraph prints based on local artist Mike Martin's experiences at a ranch on Elm Pass Road near Comfort. Trees are prevalent there, particularly elms, and some of the old ones have taken on the shape of a human figure in motion. Some of the works begin on the plate en plein air, in the midst of dancing trees.

MIKE MARTIN lives in Comfort, TX with his wife, Susan. He is a plein air watercolor painter and has recently returned to his roots as a printmaker working primarily in collagraphs.

This exhibit is on view at 713 High St inside ARTSPACE with limited days/times and by appointment.
